Overview

The CRC is a successful rowing club that provides a community environment to foster a passion for the sport of rowing and support athlete development. Founded in 1966 on the shores of the Glenmore Reservoir, the CRC provides year-round competitive and recreational rowing programs for all skill levels. Athletes from the CRC compete successfully at local, national and world levels. The CRC takes equal pride in developing both high-level athletes as well as giving hundreds of people the chance to experience the joy of rowing.

About this position

The Calgary Rowing Club (CRC) is seeking two qualified Summer Instructors who shall be responsible for coaching and educating Learn to Row and Youth Camp participants in the basics of rowing. Summer Instructors provide an enjoyable experience that will encourage participants to become further involved with the Calgary Rowing Club. The goal of a Summer Instructor is to create a fun atmosphere for participants through confident instruction, enthusiasm and safety. Their interaction with summer program participants and/or parents will be central to the impressions of the CRC and the sport of rowing formed by newcomers. Additionally, the Summer Instructor is a role model for new comers, as well as experienced athletes, and their ability to handle stressful situations in a mature manner along with strong conflict resolution skills are paramount in ensuring that everyone at the CRC has a fun and successful summer. The Summer Instructor will work collaboratively with a team of summer staff to provide quality programs at the CRC between May and August. The Summer Instructor reports directly to the Club Manager.
