The following code of conduct applies to members of the Calgary Rowing Club (CRC) while participating in events onsite at the CRC and while representing the Calgary Rowing Club at other events offsite.

1. I am an ambassador of the Calgary Rowing Club (CRC) and shall maintain high standards of moral and ethical conduct, which includes self-control and responsible behavior and consideration for other's physical and emotional well being.
2. In cases of serious infractions of behaviour:

 - b. My coach, in consultation with the parent chaperones (if applicable) and CRC Board of Directors, will determine the disciplinary action to be taken. The Club Manager, the program coach, or a CRC Board member will then contact the athlete or, if applicable, parent/guardians of those involved, to inform them of the situation and the actions being taken.
3. I will treat others with respect and expect to be treated with respect in return.

Athlete Agreement

A breach of any part of this code of conduct is sufficient grounds for me to be withdrawn from an event and to be sent home at my own expense and/or result in the removal from any Financial Assistance Program. I am subject to the disciplinary policies and procedures of Calgary Rowing Club as presented by the Association’s Policy and Procedures Manual, which may include being removed from Calgary Rowing Club membership and access to all their programs.
